Stop Holding Your Breath!
It's Time To Dive Into The New Conditions of Participation

Workshop Overview

Your home health agency was expected to be in compliance with the new CoPs effective January 13, 2018. There are no more delays, no grace period. You will be expected to have implemented action plans to be in compliance with Control, Quality Assessment and Performance Improvement, Emergency Preparedness; and Patient Rights and other Conditions with multiple revised standards.

This one-day interactive program has been totally revamped and is based on CMS' released "draft" Interpretive Guidelines, as well as the instructors' mock survey experience and knowledge of previously published guidance to surveyors. This is an interactive workshop with ideas to be shared by participants.

Participants should come prepared to learn new ideas and share existing ones. A copy of the Final Rules can be found at <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2017/01/13/2017-00283/medicare-and-medicaid-program-conditions-of-participation-for-home-health-agencies>. The Interpretive Guidelines are at http://report.nahc.org/wp-content/uploads/2017/10/3819-F-HomeHealthAgency-CoPs_IGs.pdf. We encourage participants to bring a copy of the Final Rule or Interpretive Guidelines with them to training.

Workshop Objectives

- Identify two measures that will improve compliance with Infection Control CoP
- Note three new components to the Patient Rights CoP
- Cite 3 action items to take to achieve compliance with the new QAPI regulations
