Description

Part A: Background and Description

After passing the Small Business Act of 1958, Congress expanded the scope of the act with additional legislation that established socio-economic programs for special categories of small businesses. The purpose of the socio-economic programs is to help ensure that a fair proportion of the total purchases of property or services for the government is awarded to small businesses. The major advantage of the small business socio-economic programs is the contract set asides for the special categories of small businesses. Federal agencies have goals to meet with respect to the small business socio-economic categories. The Small Business Administration measures how well agencies meet their goals with its annual Procurement Scorecards. (www.sba.gov/content/small-business-procurement-goaling-scorecards).

The Socio-Economic Small Business Programs include the following:

1. Small Business
   - Independently owned and operated
   - Not dominant in the field in which it is bidding
   - Qualified as a small business under the SBA criteria and size standards

2. Small Disadvantaged Business
   - A Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) is a small business that is at least 51% owned, operated, and managed on a daily basis by one or more socially disadvantaged or economically disadvantaged U.S. citizens.

3. Section 8(a) Firm
   - Section 8(a) of the Small Business Act establishes SBA's business development program for socially and economically disadvantaged small businesses.

     b. Be unconditionally owned and controlled by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged individuals who are of good character and citizens of the United States
     c. Demonstrate potential for success
     d. Be certified by the SBA
   - The 8(a) program is administered by the SBA, which certifies and monitors all firms in the program. Eligibility is for a nine-year program that includes a developmental stage followed by a transitional stage.
