Winning the Challenge of Successful Documentation: Mastering Home Health Documentation

Workshop Overview

Inaccurate documentation causes legal, ethical and reimbursement problems everyday in home health care and clinicians lack of knowledge of documentation is the causative factor. This program is designed to address each of the problem areas of documentation. The agenda will cover the legal and ethical issues in home care. It will address examples of errors in documentation that lead to denials of payment and failures in demonstrating standards of practice. Using case example scenarios the program will discuss how clinicians should document for each category of skill covered by the home health benefit. Documentation by skilled nurses and therapist will be covered.

Workshop Objectives

1. Identify strategies for enhancing documentation from a regulatory and payment perspective.
2. Describe methods for strengthening documentation from a legal perspective.
3. List documentation practices that are criticized by RACs and ZPICs
