“Street Officer’s Response to Family Law Dispute Scenarios”

Monday, June 15, 2020 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM

2 POST Credits per session- Cost $40 per session or $75 for both sessions

Course Description: These live online sessions are abbreviated versions of the in-person trainings and address many of the calls street officers respond to which turn out to be civil disputes including: landlord-tenant issues, roommate disputes, automobile repossessions, and parties withholding another’s property claiming a possessory lien, along with child custody disputes.

Featured Presenter: Rod Nelson worked with the Hennepin County Sheriff’s Office for over 23 years, retiring as a captain of the Civil Process Division. He practiced law with the firm of Lommen, Nelson, Stageberg & Cole, P.A. and served as the director of the firm’s training subsidiary, Compendium. Rod now serves as the director of Law Enforcement Training Services, LLC, which is committed to providing quality training to law enforcement and other professionals. LETS offers direct training and consulting services, as well as seminars throughout Minnesota. Rod has been a frequent lecturer with the Minnesota State Bar Association, the Minnesota Institute of Legal Education, and the Minnesota Sheriffs’ Association, as well as a classroom instructor for the Minneapolis Community and Technical College. He is also currently an adjunct professor at Concordia University in the Criminal Justice Master’s Degree Program.
