The Anoka County Sheriff's Office and the Minnesota Sheriffs' Association is hosting a

JAIL/CORRECTIONS USE-OF-FORCE INSTRUCTOR UPDATE/REFRESHER TRAINING

On

November 4 – 5, 2020, from 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

At

Anoka County Sheriff's Office
13301 Hanson Blvd. NW – Andover, MN

This two-day, 16 hour, use of force instructor training is specifically designed to refresh and enhance the mental, verbal, and physical skills of the current jail/corrections use of force instructor. All attendees must be a current use of force instructor with their agency regardless of where they received their initial training.

This training will cover correctional use of force including searching, vertical control, takedowns, ground control, maximum handcuffing in a fight situation, pain compliant escorts, hobble restraint, and basic self-defense in a jail/correctional setting.

The course is instructed by MSA's Use of Force instructor Steve Anderson. Steve was the Use of Force Instructor for the Hennepin County Sheriff's Office prior to his retirement. He implemented the use of force unit in Hennepin County in 1995. His complete biography may be accessed on the MSA web site under Steve Anderson trainings.

Cost: $325 – includes break refreshments

Approved for 16 POST Credits
