ASSISTANT MEDICAL EXAMINER POSITION.

SALARY RANGE $154,064.00 - $254,576.00/year

The Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, Office of the Chief Medical Examiner, is seeking an Assistant Medical Examiner to participate in a team approach to forensic pathology, investigating deaths and performing autopsies as necessary. The primary purpose of this position is to provide certified medical and specialized pathology skills in the performance of the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner’s (OCME) mandated cause and manner of death investigation.

The OCME forensic pathology team consists of the Chief Medical Examiner, two Deputy Chief Medical Examiners, 15 Assistant Medical Examiners and three fellows.

The OCME serves the entire state of Maryland with 6 million residents, in Baltimore City and the surrounding 23 counties. The OCME is staffed with 82 full time and 120 part time staff and is housed in a stand-alone 120,000 square foot facility on the University Of Maryland’s medical campus that was occupied by the OCME in 2010. The office is well equipped with CT and LODOX, and the in-house toxicology laboratory has a turnaround time of 5 days.
The OCME is affiliated with six medical schools in the Maryland DC area and provides elective opportunities for pathology residents from those schools.

The assistant medical examiners typically work every third day in the autopsy room during the week and one weekend a month. The daily autopsy workload is divided amongst the team of 3-4 assistant medical examiners, three fellows, and visiting residents.

Maryland is ideally situated in the Mid-Atlantic area and with DC, Philadelphia and New York easily accessible provides a superb quality of life option, attractions and activities. It is a great place to raise a family with extremely good school systems, colleges and universities. An abundance of varying housing is available from downtown waterfront condos to suburban and rural settings all within a reasonable commute. There is no requirement to be a resident of the state.

The position includes standard state employee benefits (medical, leave, pension, deferred compensation, and compensatory leave for time worked over the usual 40 hour week.)
